

THE CALEDONIAN LECTURE

ST COLUMBA'S CHURCH, PONT STREET

IN ASSOCIATION WITH SCOTS IN LONDON
AND THE HUNGARIAN EMBASSY

EMBASSY OF HUNGARY
LONDON

WEDNESDAY 7 OCTOBER 2020

Scots in London

JANE HAINING

AN INSPIRING TALE OF QUIET HEROISM

Lecture by Mary Miller

Author of "Jane Haining: A Life of Love and Courage"

Jane Haining was reared in a Scotland barely recognisable today; a Scotland that was sure of its values and ready to live by them. Among those values were a sense of decency, a belief in doing your duty and having respect for others. She seems in her work in Budapest to have exemplified the best of Scotland, and this would have been the case even if the story of her life wasn't in danger of being overshadowed by her appalling death.

Allan Massie, writing in the Independent

THIS IS A FREE VIRTUAL EVENT, CONNECT VIA

HTTPS://WWW.STCOLUMBAS.ORG.UK/CALEDONIANLECTURE

JOIN FROM 6 PM FOR PRELUDE AND LECTURE AT 6.30 PM

The Caledonian Lecture is supporting the Robert Burns International Foundation

The Hungarian/Scottish charity helping sick and underprivileged children.

If you wish to donate please follow this link: <http://www.rbif.hu>

A HUNGARIAN SCOTTISH DINNER TO HONOUR JANE HAINING WILL BE ARRANGED
WHEN RESTRICTIONS ARE LIFTED